PRESENTS

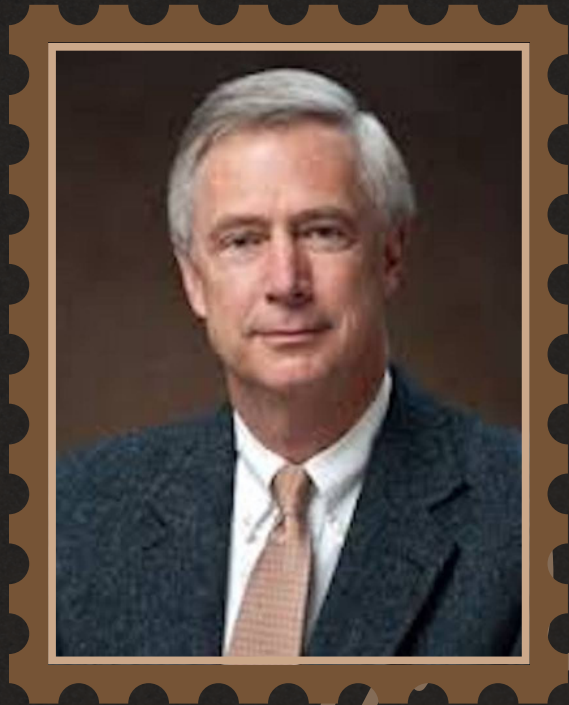

FIRESIDE CHAT

January 29th | 6:00 PM
The Carolina Ballroom

Guest Speaker Dr. John Malcolm McCardell Jr.

Meet Dr. John McCardell - historian, educator, and nationally respected voice on the American South and higher education. Known for his influential work on Southern history and for leading both Middlebury College and The University of the South, he brings a rare blend of intellect, warmth, and wit.

A specialist in the Revolutionary War era, Dr. McCardell will focus on the complexities of the war itself and the significance of America's upcoming 250th Anniversary, offering broader context surrounding this pivotal period in the nation's early history.
